

SLUGGING THE LEATHER.

A Hard-Hitting and Wretched Fielding Game Between Indianapolis and Omaha—The Mets Defeated at Louisville—Results of Other Games.

A game between two amateur nines close'y matched would have been much more interesting than the one sided contest which took place at the Seventh Street Park yesterday afternoon, in which one professional team was pitted against nine indifferent players. Had not the local ones wielded the stick with might and main throughout half the 100 spectators would have left the grounds before the contest was ended. The home team grew careless after the first three innings, when it was definitely settled that they had an easy victory, and did not play their usual brilliant fielding game, but continued to pound the ball viciously. Black was knocked out of the box in the second inning, when the home team scored eleven runs, and O'Donnell came in from right field and twirled the ball the remainder of the game. He was also batted very hard. McGuire knocking the ball over the fence in the eighth inning. The visitors fielded wretchedly, piling up error after error. Weister being the only man who came out with a clean record. The feature of the game was McGuire's home run hit. Following is the Louisville Hit Lynch Freely.

 Louisville, May 26.—The Louisville again defeated the Metropolitans to-day before a fair crowd. The game was close and exciting. The home boys hit Lynch heavily for the first time. Both clubs played a fine fielding game. Browning's home run was the feature.

A Well Contested Game.
 Louisville, May 26.—The home team won a well contested game from the Baltimore this afternoon. In the fourth inning Carroll split his finger, and was released by Kemmer. About 1,000 persons were present. Score:

A Close Game at Boston.
 Boston, May 26.—The purchasers of tickets to the Boston-Chicago game to-day, and they were legion, got their money's worth of base ball, for rarely has heavy batting, good fielding, bad errors, lively base-running and all the elements which go to make up a game of base ball been crowded into one game than on this occasion. The Champions Win.
 Providence, May 26.—The champions played a good game to-day, though for a time they failed to hit Getzlen with any success. The visitors played a splendid fielding game, the only errors being the bases on balls, given by Getzlen, but they were unable to do anything with Radbourne's slow curve. Attendance 600. Score:

The General Committee of Arrangements will meet this evening at Castle Hall. Every member is requested to be present.

William Lloyd and his superb company will produce "Damon and Pythias" next week at Dickson's Grand Opera House under the auspices and for the benefit of the K. of P. management of the grand entertainment next week. J. H. Rathbone, P. S. C., and founder of the order, highly recommends Mr. Lloyd and his company and considers him the "Damon" of the American stage. Tickets to be had at the box office.

Grand Hotel has been selected as the headquarters for the Grand Lodge officers next week. Supreme Chancellor Van Valkenburg, S. V. Chancellor Howard Douglas and H. H.

Rathbone, the founder of the order, accompanied by the Grand Conclaves, Sir Knight Commander M. G. Morris, of Frankfort Division, was in the city on Saturday and met with the General Committee. Frankfort Division will be present and take part in the exercises.

The Chancery Division was in the city on Monday, and offered his aid to the Committee of Arrangements should they require it. He stopped at the Grand Hotel.

All the invitations to the military companies and others, and all the envelopes sent by the Knights of Pythias Committee in this city, were written and backed by Professor C. N. Crandle, of the Indiana Business College in the Vance Block, and were very highly complimentary to the Professor's penmanship. Professor Crandle intends to make Indianapolis his home and follow his profession, in which it is hoped he will be prosperous.

PERSONAL MENTION.
 Hon. Nimrod Elliott, of Mechanicsburg, ex-member of the Democratic electoral ticket, was in the city yesterday.

Judge Stoenburg and Mayor Kelso, both well known citizens of New Albany, were in the city yesterday and paid the Sentinel a call.

The following gentlemen were admitted to practice in the Supreme Court yesterday: George W. Holman, Rochester; John T. Brown, Fowler; Jefferson W. Claypool, Connersville; William Booth, Noblesville; William E. Cox, Portland; Enoch Myers, Julius Rawley, Rochester; James C. Blackledge, Kokomo; George M. Bullard, Elwood; Joseph G. Bach, Huntington; James J. Walsh, Greenfield.

They Are Making a Record.
 About 9 o'clock last night, William Clapp of 466 North Alabama street, while walking along Pennsylvania near the University Park, was met by two rough looking men, one of whom was colored. He attempted to pass them but they commanded him to halt, at the same time drawing revolvers. Clapp stopped, and the highwaymen went through his pockets, securing a silver watch and seventy-five cents. He was then permitted to pass, and the two men disappeared through the Park. These men answer to the description of the highwaymen who robbed the young man on East Ohio street on Monday night; also, the fellows who shot at Patrolmen Schaffer and Hagedorn.

Supposed Mad Dog.
 A dog, supposed to be mad, took possession of the residence of Nathan Borenstein yesterday morning. The old man being unable to remove it, his son Moses came up stairs, and attempted to catch the brute by the neck. The dog caught him by the hand and lacerated it in a horrible manner, and then jumped out of the window. Pat Kilian happened to be near and knocked the dog down. He then threw a piece of carpet over it and carried it into a backyard, where he killed it. The animal is believed to have been mad.

Take Them to Their Mammies.
 Every afternoon, as soon as school is dismissed, about two dozen boys engage in ball playing on Market street, near New Jersey. This is not objected to, but the lads are very profane and vulgar, and their language makes it very disagreeable for residents of the neighborhood so much so that complaints are being entered against them.

Alas! for Tray.
 A large yellow car dog, which has long been an object of interest on West Washington street, the terror of all good dogs and an object of contempt for the bulldogs of the neighborhood, was found cut in pieces on the tracks yesterday morning. He was the cherished friend and property of a colored bootblack.

They'll Work Now.
 McDougall and McCarty heretofore in charge of the stone-pile, have been removed, and John Sourbier and Elwood Sands put in their places. It is alleged that the former were afraid of one gang of men, and could not make them work.

Broke an Arm.
 A little child named Clemmons, aged two and a half years, living on Greer street near the corner of McCarty, fell off the porch yesterday morning and broke its arm. Dr. Marzee was called to set the bones.

The Dolphin Said to Be Worthless.
 [Brooklyn Union.]
 The Dolphin has not only broken down again, but she has broken badly. The overheating of the crank pin was due to defective workmanship, and especially to rough castings. The ship is badly constructed, and is deemed by competent officers to be unseaworthy. She is very weak amidship, and when she is running at her best speed her decks shake and her bow and stern rise and fall with the beating of the machinery. The officers who inspected her would not like to go to sea in her. As one of them said: "She would be in danger of breaking in two in the middle." Her journals can not help setting forth. Her journals can not help setting forth. Her journals can not help setting forth.

An Adopted Daughter.
 [Washington Letter.]
 Miss Jennie Pendleton, one of the two reputed daughters of our Minister to Germany, is not his daughter, but Mrs. Pendleton's niece, and a daughter of the unfortunate Philip Barton Key, who was slain by Bixles. Mrs. Pendleton and he were children of Francis Scott Key, the author of "The Star Spangled Banner." After his death the star took this sadly orphaned child to her own home and heart, and Mrs. Pendleton endowed her with a large fortune. Mrs. Pendleton is a woman of great reserve power, and she had need of it. A living tragedy, almost sadder than that which removed her brilliant brother in his prime, was attached to another member of the family, but was mercifully terminated by her death in a foreign land last July.

Sermons to Order.
 [Truth, London.]
 Some curious revelations as to the process by which sermons are manufactured were given in a case in the law courts on Saturday.

A vicar at Deptford had, it seems, employed the wife of a foreman in a manufacturing establishment to assist him in concocting his sermons, promising to "remember her" in his will by way of remuneration. He, however, omitted to make one, and her claim of £100 a year compensation was not legally enforceable, though if the vicar indicated two sermons a Sunday on his congregation, the amount was not excessive for the work done. For she had to select the subjects and texts, and then "out of five family bibles by different authors, she collected the notes, references and authorities, and set them in order." The idea is excellent, and for the increased employment of women and improvement of sermons is to be highly commended to the wives of clergymen, foremen "and others."

Ingersoll Flanked.
 Inter-Ocean.]
 The word has been changed to "sheol," but it is well enough to remember that "the old stand" remains and does business just the same.

To us it seems a plain, practical, legitimate proposition that Republicans have no right to hold responsible and influential positions under a Democratic administration, and vice versa, else election by parties is a farce, political issues have ceased to be, and the millennium has come—Washington Post.

Advice to Mothers.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once. It produces natural, quiet sleep, by relieving the pain from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Reduction in the Price of Gas!
Notice to Gas Consumers and Others.
 Your attention is called to the marked reduction in the price of gas, which took effect on the 1st day of March. The Company is now furnishing gas to all consumers at $1.80 per 1,000 cubic feet. This price is certainly within the reach of all, for both lighting and cooking purposes. The convenience and comfort of cooking by gas, especially during the summer months, where a fire is not otherwise required, can only be thoroughly appreciated by those who have had experience in its useful application for that purpose. The Company has sold for use in this city during the last four years a large number of gas stoves, and is satisfied from the many testimonials from its patrons, that these stoves "fill a long felt want."
